

LV Collective Hires Alex Perkins as President of Multifamily

Strategic Hire Highlights Growth of LV's Multifamily Platform

AUSTIN, Texas – September 24, 2024 - LV Collective, a national multifamily and student-oriented real estate developer, announces the addition of Alex Perkins to their leadership team as president of multifamily. In this role, Alex will define and execute the firm’s multifamily platform, overseeing strategy, development, capital markets, operations, and asset management.

“Alex's extensive experience and innovative approach make him an outstanding addition to our team as we continue to expand our footprint in multifamily development,” said LV Collective CEO, David Kanne. “His leadership will be pivotal in executing our strategic initiatives and enhancing our market presence.”

Alex brings over a decade of experience in commercial real estate, previously serving as a director for Greystar Development and Construction Services. There, he led efforts in site selection, underwriting, capitalization, and execution of development projects across Central Texas. His portfolio spans multifamily, student housing, active adult, build-to-rent, industrial, and office asset types.

Alex is a member of the University of Texas Real Estate Center's Advisory Council, where he advises on program strategy and curriculum design. Additionally, he is actively engaged with the Urban Land Institute and the Real Estate Council of Austin.
